CAUSE

Armando Bucio-Cisneros submitted to a mandatory drug test on July 11, 2013, and it was presumptive positive for marijuana. Mr. Bucio-Cisneros admitted he had used marijuana on or about June 28, 2013. He signed an admission form indicating the use of marijuana on this date. The defendant advised it was an error in judgment while he was associating with old friends. He apologized for his behavior and stated he does not use controlled substances and is aware he has a great deal to lose should he have a lapse in judgment again.

Before this violation, Mr. Bucio-Cisneros had been compliant with his probation. He reported to this officer as required, he has made his monthly restitution payments, and has had no contact with law enforcement. The defendant has a prosocial family, a good job, and stable housing. Mr. Bucio-Cisneros has agreed to submit to regular random drug testing to ensure that he has discontinued using any controlled substances.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
